DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-6, drawn to a tape automated bonding structure (TAB), classified in class 174, subclass 250.
 - II. Claims 7-10, and 11-13 drawn to an electrical device, classified in class 361, subclass 760.
 - III. Claims 14-16, drawn to an implantable medical device, classified in class 600, subclass 373.
 - IV. Claims 17-19, drawn to a method of making an electrical device, classified in class 29, subclass 832

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions IV and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the TAB leadframe structure of the combination does not include a TAB flex tape having a conductive lead pattern including a plurality of leads configured to form an inner lead bond area and an outer lead bond area. The subcombination has separate utility such as connecting a capacitor to a circuit board.

3. Inventions II and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed (evidence claim 7) does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the TAB leadframe structure of the combination does not include a TAB flex tape having a conductive lead pattern including a plurality of leads configured to form an inner lead bond and an outer lead bond. The subcombination has separate utility such as such as connecting a capacitor to a circuit board.

4. Inventions I and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as a heart monitor. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

5. Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as a heart monitor. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

6. Inventions III and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as a heart monitor. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Art Unit: 3762

7. Inventions II and IV are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as welding, sputtering, etching, or adhesive application.

8. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

9. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

10. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
